

Austin Brass Collective

Fall Program

Season 5

WELCOME!

My name is Matt Kundler and it is my pleasure to welcome you to this Austin Brass Collective concert! Starting out our fifth season is a humbling and thrilling experience, and I'd like to thank you for joining us on the loudest musical journey in Austin!

To me, this season is a celebration of ABC's short history. We are revisiting some of our favorite pieces from past concerts, incorporating the young musicians that make up ABCY in more ways, and bringing back one of our most popular concerts, Game On, as our season finale: Versus!

Whether this is your first ABC concert or you've been with us since season 1, I hope we can introduce you to your next favorite song, convince you to watch a movie with a great score, or dive back in to your favorite video game.

Making your week more musical is the least we can do for your support!

ENJOY THE SHOW!

Dr. Mike Lebrias

Music Director

Dr. Mike Lebrias is a conductor, music educator, & content creator residing in Austin, Texas. He currently serves as an Assistant Director of Bands and Director of Creative Media for the University of Texas Bands department, where he co-teaches the Longhorn Band & Longhorn Pep Band, conducts the Austin Youth Wind Ensemble, and oversees content creation efforts for the department. Dr. Lebrias also maintains his own social media channels - he enjoys making content geared towards providing educational music and conducting content to his viewers, and aims to help bring the Wind Band art form, its composers, and its music into the mainstream.

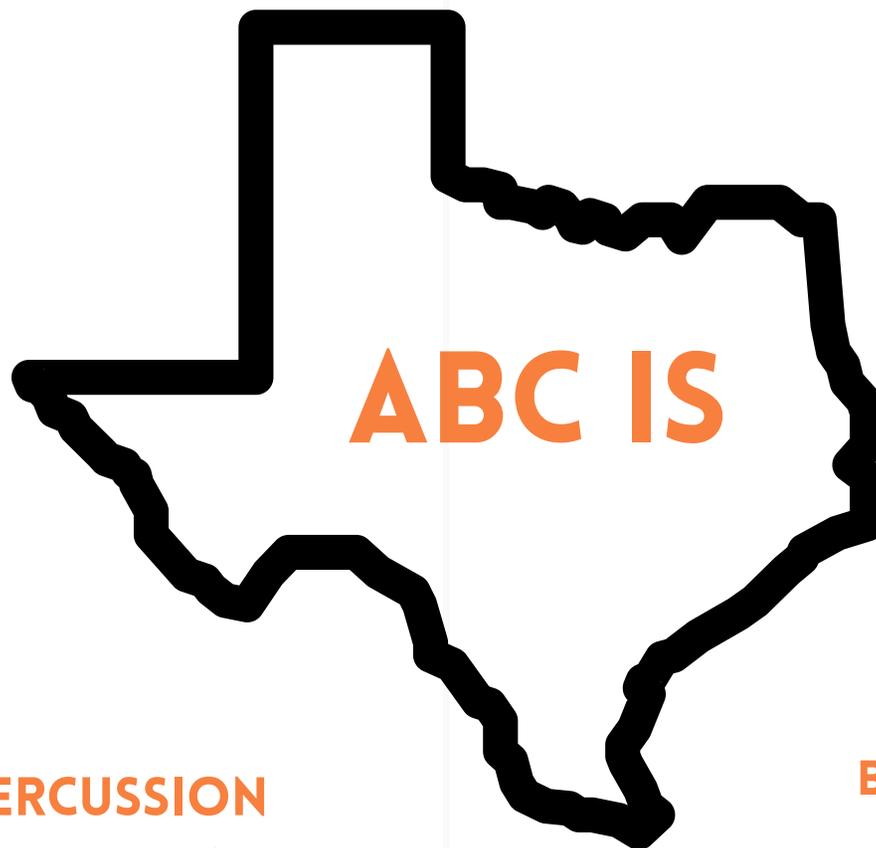

Dr. Lebrias has been fortunate enough to conduct ensembles at all levels of performance - from middle school honor bands to professional wind bands; he keeps an active schedule as a clinician, music arranger, and a content creator for wind music - creating content for composers & professional wind bands across the country.
